

NEEDS ASSEMBLY TO AROUSE CITY FROM WICKEDNESS

(Continued From First Page.)

The interests of the church in national affairs was decided upon by the United Assembly this afternoon. A resolution to this effect was presented in the report of the standing committee of the home missions board, and immediately adopted. On motion of Dr. S. A. McCulloch, pastor of the North Avenue Church of Baltimore, Md., it was decided to call this structure the "Memorial Church." Funds necessary for the construction of the Memorial Church will be raised by congregational contributions of $10 or more.

In the Northern Assembly another important matter was the adoption of recommendations embodied in the report of the standing committee on publications and Sunday school work.

The plan for publishing and syndicate graded lessons was approved by the committee, with the recommendation that beginners, primary and junior lessons be simplified and brought into harmony with Presbyterian doctrine, and that in the use of extra Bible lessons the same suggestion be followed. As the report of the special committee on graded Sunday school lessons is yet to be received, there may be made a fight to abolish these lessons entirely.

Aid Feeble Congregations.
Another matter of interest was the adoption by the Northern Assembly of the recommendation of the executive committee that the church erection board be directed to transfer $500,000 from the John S. Kennedy fund to the loan fund for aiding feeble congregations to build churches. The legality of this action, which was also directed by the 1912 assembly, had been questioned by certain of the board, and Judge Alton B. Parker, of New York, is said to have rendered two opinions in the matter, based upon two separate representations submitted by members of the board. In order to take decisive action, it was necessary to secure the approval of two-thirds of the assembly membership, this requiring a roll call of 355 names. Voting to adopt the recommendations of the committee were 319 delegates, only 572 being requisite. The Northern Assembly will meet its 1914 meeting place Friday.

A description of conditions of immorality and ignorance in the Japanese empire was submitted to the Southern Assembly by Rev. S. M. Erickson, missionary. Rev. D. W. Richardson made a similar report regarding China. Dr. A. M. Fraser, Staunton, Va., chairman of the committee on foreign missions, reported that, beginning with a deficit of $104,568, the committee had received contributions of $43,069, and had $7,577 in the treasury. The consideration of withdrawal from the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America was postponed.

Foreign missions occupied the attention of the Pan-Presbyterian Pentecost to-night's general session. Rev. A. J. Brown, New York, delivered an address on the subject of the "Far East." The American, James Nash, of Nashville, spoke of "Africa and America's obligation to that country." Rev. C. R. Watson, Philadelphia, Pa., made a strong plea for the enlightenment of the Mohammedans.

As on previous nights, the session was preceded by a special musical program.

SESSION MAY END TO-DAY

Rapid Progress Made in Clearing Calendar by Southern Assembly.
BY MAURIE BRYAN

Atlanta, Ga., May 21.—There is hope expressed by many of the commissioners of the fifty-third General Assembly of the Southern Presbyterian Church that the assembly will complete the clearing of the docket and be dissolved on Thursday afternoon. Judging from the manner in which the business of the body was dispatched to-day, this hope is well founded. But Rev. J. S. Lyons, the moderator, has not expressed the opinion that the business can be completed before Friday. Among the few items yet on the docket, one or two may be the object of the assembly's discussion to prolong the session beyond to-morrow.

There were four nominations to the General Assembly this morning, each being ably represented and seconded, as the place in which to hold the assembly of 1914. The nominations, in regular order, were as follows: Newport News, Va.; Waco, Texas; Kansas City, Mo.; and Rock Hill, S. C. Whatever the mind of the commissioners may have been before with reference to the choice of place for holding the next assembly, the brilliant and oratorical appeal of Judge W. H. Wallace for Kansas City carried easily the large majority vote in favor of his home town. When the vote was taken the result was as follows: Newport News, 23; Waco, 33; Kansas City, 102; Rock Hill, 10. On motion of Rev. Thornton Whaling, the choice of Kansas City was made unanimous.

Opposed to Agitation.
That this assembly is opposed to further agitation at this time of the question of Romanism as a menace to the progress of Protestantism was evidenced to-day by its action regarding an overture on this subject, which was included in the report of the committee on bills and overtures, which reads as follows:

"In answer to the overture from West Hanover Presbytery touching Romanism, and asking, first, that the resolution presented at the meeting of the general assembly in Louisville in 1911 be adopted, which resolutions read as follows:

"First, resolved, that the general assembly views with serious concern the growth and pernicious activity of that powerful politico-religious organization known as the Roman Catholic Church, which is and always has been a menace or blight to civil and religious liberty of every kind, wherever it has obtained a foothold; that it views with serious concern the apathy of the public men concerning this menace; the evident disposition on the part of the general government to grant special favors to this organization and the ominous silence of the public press concerning any adverse criticism of this body, and at the same time a readiness freely to advertise all that it of interest to this so-called church.

"Second, that this assembly shall appoint an ad interim committee of five members, which shall inquire concerning this whole matter, and report to the next general assembly some practical method of advising our whole people concerning the dangers involved in the above facts, and if in their judgment, to invite the influence and co-operation of other Protestant bodies in this work."

Notwithstanding the fact that the committee on bills and overtures recommended that this resolution be adopted, the assembly ordered that it be laid on the table, and it took that course. Rev. W. McE. Alexander, of New Orleans, led the opposition to the adoption of the paper. He began with the statement that everybody knows that Presbyterians and Romanists stand at opposite poles, and that no good can possibly come from "eternally stirring the matter up and slapping Romanists in the face," and that such a course only hinders the work of Protestantism in winning them. The adoption of a paper of this kind, he said, only makes it harder for Protestants who labor where Catholics are numerous and hinders them in reaching Catholics.

The resolution originated, he said, in a presbytery where there are few Catholics, and he urged that it be laid on the table and the assembly approved his request.

Among the other recommendations of the committee on bills and overtures was one that the nomination of field secretary and other secretaries be made by the several executive committees after this assembly, but this action is not to take away from the assembly the right to make other nominations if it so desires, and the power of electing secretaries is given to the assembly if so; that the request of Rev. W. W. Moore, D. D., of Richmond, for the appointment of a committee to arrange suitable subjects for reformation day be granted, and the moderator was requested to appoint this committee. Regarding the overtures referred to the committee touching the use of tobacco by ministers, professors and students in theological seminaries and opposing the same, the committee did not approve, and answered it in the negative.

"Instead of the usual devotional services conducted by a minister at the opening of the morning session of the assembly to-day, this service consisted of Scripture recitation by the children in the Parochial school of North Avenue Presbyterian Church, and this was followed with song and prayer."

Report of Committees.
The afternoon session was occupied with the consideration of reports of the standing committees of the assembly, and the feature of home missions was especially prominent. In connection with the report of the committee on printed minutes, a resolution was adopted that the report of the assembly's campaign committee on evangelism and stewardship be printed in the minutes of the assembly for information. After the presentation of the report on foreign missions, two foreign missionaries, Rev. S. M. Erickson, of Japan, and Rev. D. W. Richardson, of China, addressed the assembly.

After the reading of the report on Bible cause, Rev. John Fox, of the Bible House, New York, spoke in the interest of the Bible distribution.

Rev. T. H. Law having requested to be relieved of membership on the permanent committee on Bible cause, Rev. M. B. Porter, of Richmond, was elected in his stead.

The report of the American Bible Society shows the total number of issues of the Bible at home and abroad, 359,734; of new testaments, 713,591, and 2,935,985 copies of portions of the scripture, a total of more than twice as many issues as published five years ago.

The total number of volumes of the Bible and portions of the same issued during the ninety-seven years of the history of the American Bible Society is 9,826,715. The total amount of money received by the society the past year and now available for current work is $601,966. During the year there was an increase in the trust fund of $10,256. The work of the society in the United States is directed by nine home agencies. Rev. M. B. Porter, of Richmond, is the secretary of the South Atlantic agency, in which are included the States of Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Florida. The distribution of the scriptures in this agency has been continued vigorously, and the circulation has increased until it has reached the total of 109,284 volumes. Dr. Porter has had associated with him sixty persons, either its colporteurs or correspondents. As heretofore, this agency has reached city and country rural districts and seaport towns, and the work of Bible distribution is being ing pushed with equal vigor in all sections.

Appreciation of the work of Charles A. Rowland, chairman of the Laymen's Missionary Movement and of the work of the movement, was expressed in the report of the committee on home missions; also that of J. P. M. McCallie, chairman of the campaign committee on evangelism and stewardship, Rev. J. E. Thacker, of Norfolk, Va., the assembly's evangelist, and G. W. Crabtree, prison evangelist.

Addresses on Home Missions.
Addresses to the assembly in the interest of home missions were made by Rev. S. L. Morris, executive secretary, Rev. J. C. Snedecor, superintendent of colored evangelism, and by one Indian and one colored man engaged in home mission work.

Dr. Snedecor urged more liberal financial support of the work for colored people, and said this work is not making the progress it should make, because of lack of money.

The report on ministerial education and relief emphasized again the urgent need for the completion of the endowment fund of $500,000 for relief of retired ministers.

One item of this report recommends that the committee use none of its fund to aid any candidate for the ministry unless the presbytery under whose care he is reports that he has a thorough knowledge of the Shorter Catechism.

On motion of Rev. R. L. Campbell, this item was stricken from the report. Mr. Campbell stated that he regarded this requirement too binding, and that, while he had learned the catechism three times himself, he would not want to stand an examination on it at this time, and that he felt such a requirement would be embarrassing to the candidate for the ministry, who, no doubt, possessed a thorough knowledge of the catechism, but who would not desire to stand an examination on the same.

The report of the permanent committee on the Sabbath and family religion adopted by this assembly in substance is as follows:

"That the attention of our merchants be called to the fact that the keeping open of stores on Saturday night unquestionably incapacitates employees for the right performance of Sabbath duty, and thus involves Sabbath desecration.

"That our people be urged scrupulously to guard against any regulations that tend to encourage Sabbath violation on the part of servants.

"That, so far as is expedient, our ministers, officers and church members be exhorted to discourage the holding of funerals on the Lord's day.

"That the general assembly utter its disapproval of games and sports on the Sabbath, not only in the civil sphere, but also in the army and navy; and again remind our people of the sin of excursions of unnecessary traveling.

"That in view of the fact that the Sunday newspaper is inimical to the Sabbath and to the home, the assembly was adopted that the members in our bounds to refuse to subscribe for it, or advertise in it.

"That the assembly respectfully request the faculties of colleges and seminaries to omit recitations on Monday mornings, so as to leave the Sabbath free from the felt necessity of some of the students to prepare their lessons on that day.

"That during the year every pastor in our bounds be urged to preach on the subject of Sabbath observance and also a sermon on family religion."

Not Adopted.
The remainder of the report of the standing committee on foreign correspondence is yet to be considered, including the items which were referred to the Federal Council of Church of Christ in America. It is anticipated that this item of the report, to which an amendment has been offered, will claim the attention of the assembly early in the Thursday morning session. It is anticipated also that the argument will be as begun on Tuesday, as to whether the Southern Presbyterian Church shall retain membership in the council which will be continued to considerable length before the vote will be taken. The subject is recognized to be among the ablest in the assembly, and is arrayed on both sides of this question, and the argument on both sides will be ably supported.

This morning, in the auditorium, the assembly met in a joint popular meeting in the interest of foreign missions.

George Innes, of Philadelphia, president, and James I. Vance was the speaker from the Southern Assembly.

Prominent in Southern Assembly

REV. DAVID M. SWEET, D. D., of Louisville, Ky., editor of the Christian Observer.

ole Church, which is and always has been a menace or blight to civil and religious liberty of every kind, wherever it has obtained a foothold; that it views with serious concern the apathy of the public men concerning this menace; the evident disposition on the part of the general government to grant special favors to this organization and the ominous silence of the public press concerning any adverse criticism of this body, and at the same time a readiness freely to advertise all that it of interest to this so-called church.

"Second, that this assembly shall appoint an ad interim committee of five members, which shall inquire concerning this whole matter, and report to the next general assembly some practical method of advising our whole people concerning the dangers involved in the above facts, and if in their judgment, to invite the influence and co-operation of other Protestant bodies in this work."

Resolution Laid on Table.
Notwithstanding the fact that the committee on bills and overtures recommended that this resolution be adopted, the assembly ordered that it be laid on the table, and it took that course. Rev. W. McE. Alexander, of New Orleans, led the opposition to the adoption of the paper. He began with the statement that everybody knows that Presbyterians and Romanists stand at opposite poles, and that no good can possibly come from "eternally stirring the matter up and slapping Romanists in the face," and that such a course only hinders the work of Protestantism in winning them. The adoption of a paper of this kind, he said, only makes it harder for Protestants who labor where Catholics are numerous and hinders them in reaching Catholics.

The resolution originated, he said, in a presbytery where there are few Catholics, and he urged that it be laid on the table and the assembly approved his request.

Among the other recommendations of the committee on bills and overtures was one that the nomination of field secretary and other secretaries be made by the several executive committees after this assembly, but this action is not to take away from the assembly the right to make other nominations if it so desires, and the power of electing secretaries is given to the assembly if so; that the request of Rev. W. W. Moore, D. D., of Richmond, for the appointment of a committee to arrange suitable subjects for reformation day be granted, and the moderator was requested to appoint this committee. Regarding the overtures referred to the committee touching the use of tobacco by ministers, professors and students in theological seminaries and opposing the same, the committee did not approve, and answered it in the negative.

"Instead of the usual devotional services conducted by a minister at the opening of the morning session of the assembly to-day, this service consisted of Scripture recitation by the children in the Parochial school of North Avenue Presbyterian Church, and this was followed with song and prayer."

Report of Committees.
The afternoon session was occupied with the consideration of reports of the standing committees of the assembly, and the feature of home missions was especially prominent. In connection with the report of the committee on printed minutes, a resolution was adopted that the report of the assembly's campaign committee on evangelism and stewardship be printed in the minutes of the assembly for information. After the presentation of the report on foreign missions, two foreign missionaries, Rev. S. M. Erickson, of Japan, and Rev. D. W. Richardson, of China, addressed the assembly.

After the reading of the report on Bible cause, Rev. John Fox, of the Bible House, New York, spoke in the interest of the Bible distribution.

Rev. T. H. Law having requested to be relieved of membership on the permanent committee on Bible cause, Rev. M. B. Porter, of Richmond, was elected in his stead.

The report of the American Bible Society shows the total number of issues of the Bible at home and abroad, 359,734; of new testaments, 713,591, and 2,935,985 copies of portions of the scripture, a total of more than twice as many issues as published five years ago.

The total number of volumes of the Bible and portions of the same issued during the ninety-seven years of the history of the American Bible Society is 9,826,715. The total amount of money received by the society the past year and now available for current work is $601,966. During the year there was an increase in the trust fund of $10,256. The work of the society in the United States is directed by nine home agencies. Rev. M. B. Porter, of Richmond, is the secretary of the South Atlantic agency, in which are included the States of Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Florida. The distribution of the scriptures in this agency has been continued vigorously, and the circulation has increased until it has reached the total of 109,284 volumes. Dr. Porter has had associated with him sixty persons, either its colporteurs or correspondents. As heretofore, this agency has reached city and country rural districts and seaport towns, and the work of Bible distribution is being ing pushed with equal vigor in all sections.

Appreciation of the work of Charles A. Rowland, chairman of the Laymen's Missionary Movement and of the work of the movement, was expressed in the report of the committee on home missions; also that of J. P. M. McCallie, chairman of the campaign committee on evangelism and stewardship, Rev. J. E. Thacker, of Norfolk, Va., the assembly's evangelist, and G. W. Crabtree, prison evangelist.

Addresses on Home Missions.
Addresses to the assembly in the interest of home missions were made by Rev. S. L. Morris, executive secretary, Rev. J. C. Snedecor, superintendent of colored evangelism, and by one Indian and one colored man engaged in home mission work.

Dr. Snedecor urged more liberal financial support of the work for colored people, and said this work is not making the progress it should make, because of lack of money.

The report on ministerial education and relief emphasized again the urgent need for the completion of the endowment fund of $500,000 for relief of retired ministers.

One item of this report recommends that the committee use none of its fund to aid any candidate for the ministry unless the presbytery under whose care he is reports that he has a thorough knowledge of the Shorter Catechism.

On motion of Rev. R. L. Campbell, this item was stricken from the report. Mr. Campbell stated that he regarded this requirement too binding, and that, while he had learned the catechism three times himself, he would not want to stand an examination on it at this time, and that he felt such a requirement would be embarrassing to the candidate for the ministry, who, no doubt, possessed a thorough knowledge of the catechism, but who would not desire to stand an examination on the same.

The report of the permanent committee on the Sabbath and family religion adopted by this assembly in substance is as follows:

"That the attention of our merchants be called to the fact that the keeping open of stores on Saturday night unquestionably incapacitates employees for the right performance of Sabbath duty, and thus involves Sabbath desecration.

"That our people be urged scrupulously to guard against any regulations that tend to encourage Sabbath violation on the part of servants.

"That, so far as is expedient, our ministers, officers and church members be exhorted to discourage the holding of funerals on the Lord's day.

"That the general assembly utter its disapproval of games and sports on the Sabbath, not only in the civil sphere, but also in the army and navy; and again remind our people of the sin of excursions of unnecessary traveling.

"That in view of the fact that the Sunday newspaper is inimical to the Sabbath and to the home, the assembly was adopted that the members in our bounds to refuse to subscribe for it, or advertise in it.

"That the assembly respectfully request the faculties of colleges and seminaries to omit recitations on Monday mornings, so as to leave the Sabbath free from the felt necessity of some of the students to prepare their lessons on that day.

"That during the year every pastor in our bounds be urged to preach on the subject of Sabbath observance and also a sermon on family religion."

Not Adopted.
The remainder of the report of the standing committee on foreign correspondence is yet to be considered, including the items which were referred to the Federal Council of Church of Christ in America. It is anticipated that this item of the report, to which an amendment has been offered, will claim the attention of the assembly early in the Thursday morning session. It is anticipated also that the argument will be as begun on Tuesday, as to whether the Southern Presbyterian Church shall retain membership in the council which will be continued to considerable length before the vote will be taken. The subject is recognized to be among the ablest in the assembly, and is arrayed on both sides of this question, and the argument on both sides will be ably supported.

This morning, in the auditorium, the assembly met in a joint popular meeting in the interest of foreign missions.

George Innes, of Philadelphia, president, and James I. Vance was the speaker from the Southern Assembly.

ing pushed with equal vigor in all sections.

Appreciation of the work of Charles A. Rowland, chairman of the Laymen's Missionary Movement and of the work of the movement, was expressed in the report of the committee on home missions; also that of J. P. M. McCallie, chairman of the campaign committee on evangelism and stewardship, Rev. J. E. Thacker, of Norfolk, Va., the assembly's evangelist, and G. W. Crabtree, prison evangelist.

Addresses on Home Missions.
Addresses to the assembly in the interest of home missions were made by Rev. S. L. Morris, executive secretary, Rev. J. C. Snedecor, superintendent of colored evangelism, and by one Indian and one colored man engaged in home mission work.

Dr. Snedecor urged more liberal financial support of the work for colored people, and said this work is not making the progress it should make, because of lack of money.

The report on ministerial education and relief emphasized again the urgent need for the completion of the endowment fund of $500,000 for relief of retired ministers.

One item of this report recommends that the committee use none of its fund to aid any candidate for the ministry unless the presbytery under whose care he is reports that he has a thorough knowledge of the Shorter Catechism.

On motion of Rev. R. L. Campbell, this item was stricken from the report. Mr. Campbell stated that he regarded this requirement too binding, and that, while he had learned the catechism three times himself, he would not want to stand an examination on it at this time, and that he felt such a requirement would be embarrassing to the candidate for the ministry, who, no doubt, possessed a thorough knowledge of the catechism, but who would not desire to stand an examination on the same.

The report of the permanent committee on the Sabbath and family religion adopted by this assembly in substance is as follows:

"That the attention of our merchants be called to the fact that the keeping open of stores on Saturday night unquestionably incapacitates employees for the right performance of Sabbath duty, and thus involves Sabbath desecration.

"That our people be urged scrupulously to guard against any regulations that tend to encourage Sabbath violation on the part of servants.

"That, so far as is expedient, our ministers, officers and church members be exhorted to discourage the holding of funerals on the Lord's day.

"That the general assembly utter its disapproval of games and sports on the Sabbath, not only in the civil sphere, but also in the army and navy; and again remind our people of the sin of excursions of unnecessary traveling.

"That in view of the fact that the Sunday newspaper is inimical to the Sabbath and to the home, the assembly was adopted that the members in our bounds to refuse to subscribe for it, or advertise in it.

"That the assembly respectfully request the faculties of colleges and seminaries to omit recitations on Monday mornings, so as to leave the Sabbath free from the felt necessity of some of the students to prepare their lessons on that day.

"That during the year every pastor in our bounds be urged to preach on the subject of Sabbath observance and also a sermon on family religion."

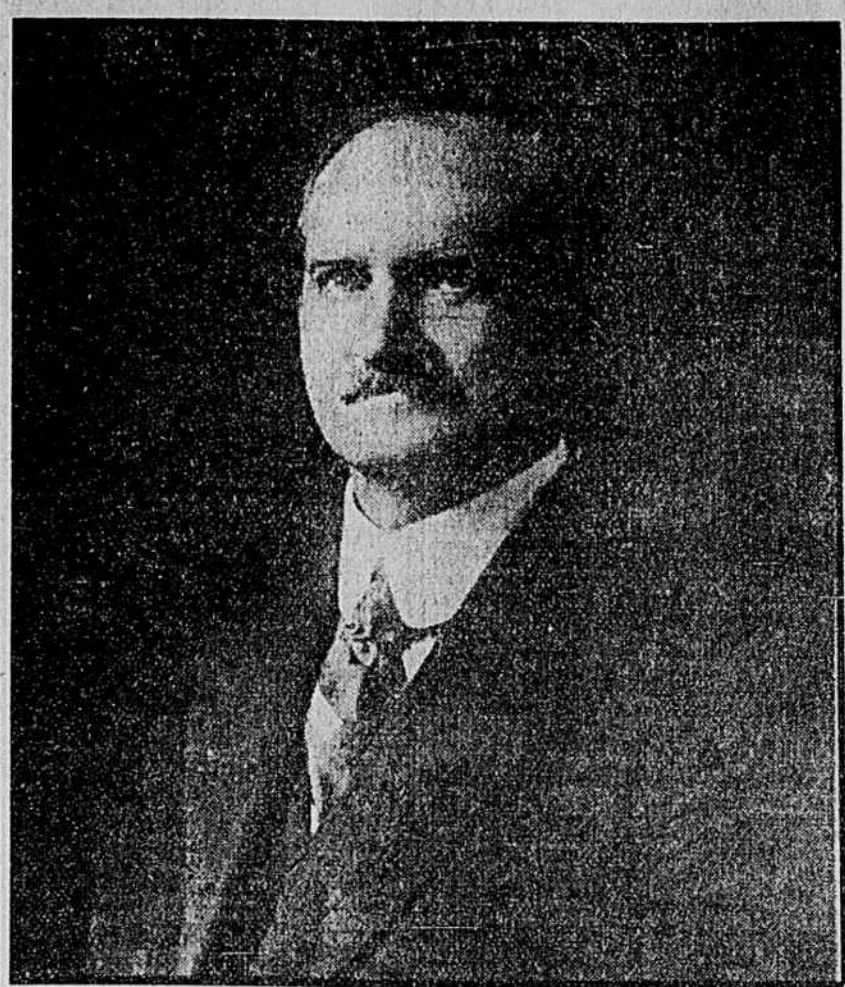

Not Adopted.
The remainder of the report of the standing committee on foreign correspondence is yet to be considered, including the items which were referred to the Federal Council of Church of Christ in America. It is anticipated that this item of the report, to which an amendment has been offered, will claim the attention of the assembly early in the Thursday morning session. It is anticipated also that the argument will be as begun on Tuesday, as to whether the Southern Presbyterian Church shall retain membership in the council which will be continued to considerable length before the vote will be taken. The subject is recognized to be among the ablest in the assembly, and is arrayed on both sides of this question, and the argument on both sides will be ably supported.

This morning, in the auditorium, the assembly met in a joint popular meeting in the interest of foreign missions.

George Innes, of Philadelphia, president, and James I. Vance was the speaker from the Southern Assembly.

ing pushed with equal vigor in all sections.

Leader in Laymen's Movement

J. CAMPBELL WHITE, of New York, General Secretary of National Laymen's Missionary Movement and prominent member of United Presbyterian Church.

MANUFACTURERS ASK FOR NEW DEPARTMENT

AN UNEVENTFUL DAY

No Developments Take Place in Trial of Burton Gibson.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Newburgh, N. Y., May 21.—This was an uneventful day, so far as the progress of the trial of Burton W. Gibson, the alleged murderer of the Countess Szabo, was concerned. This morning he was accompanied to court by Mrs. Gibson and his new counsel, Henry Kohl, the Newburgh attorney. Last night it was agreed that the trial should be adjourned until Friday, but it was not done in the presence of the prisoner, and he was brought in this morning to hear the change of venue program officially promulgated. The 150 veniremen from whom the twelve jurors are to be selected for his trial were present, and they were relieved from duty until Friday.

Mrs. Gibson accompanied her husband to his cell, remained an hour and then left for New York.

TILLMAN'S BILL APPROVED

Receives Favorable Action at Hands of Naval Committee.

Washington, May 21.—Senator Tillman's bill allowing the Secretary of the Navy to assign graduates from the Naval Academy to the lowest commissioned grades in the marine corps, or staff corps of the navy, was ordered favorably reported to-day at a meeting of the Senate Naval Affairs Committee. The bill would also nullify the act of 1903, reducing the allotment at the academy of each Congressman from two to one, and would give each the former number until June 30, 1915.

WILSON IMPRESSES HIM

Weardale Believes President Man Country Has Been Looking For.

[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] London, May 21.—Lord Weardale, the head of the peace delegation which visited America, returned to-day. When seen by a correspondent he said: "I was wonderfully impressed by President Wilson, and believe that the man America has been looking for for a long time."

Lord Weardale arrived feeling very ill as a result of a bad cold.

O'HARA EXONERATED

Commission Finds Him Guiltless of Immoral Conduct.

Springfield, Ill., May 21.—Lieutenant Governor O'Hara was exonerated from blame and Miss Maud Robinson and Sam Davis, of Springfield, were charged with attempting to obstruct the work of the Senate White Slave Commission by the report from the special senatorial commission appointed to investigate charges of immorality against O'Hara, which to-day reported its findings.

The report was unanimously adopted on viva voce vote.

The report was unanimously adopted on viva voce vote.

The report was unanimously adopted on viva voce vote.

The report was unanimously adopted on viva voce vote.

The report was unanimously adopted on viva voce vote.

The report was unanimously adopted on viva voce vote.

The report was unanimously adopted on viva voce vote.

The report was unanimously adopted on viva voce vote.

The report was unanimously adopted on viva voce vote.

The report was unanimously adopted on viva voce vote.

The report was unanimously adopted on viva voce vote.

The report was unanimously adopted on viva voce vote.

The report was unanimously adopted on viva voce vote.

The report was unanimously adopted on viva voce vote.

The report was unanimously adopted on viva voce vote.

The report was unanimously adopted on viva voce vote.

The report was unanimously adopted on viva voce vote.

The report was unanimously adopted on viva voce vote.

The report was unanimously adopted on viva voce vote.

The report was unanimously adopted on viva voce vote.

The report was unanimously adopted on viva voce vote.

The report was unanimously adopted on viva voce vote.

The report was unanimously adopted on viva voce vote.

The report was unanimously adopted on viva voce vote.

The report was unanimously adopted on viva voce vote.

The report was unanimously adopted on viva voce vote.

The report was unanimously adopted on viva voce vote.

The report was unanimously adopted on viva voce vote.

The report was unanimously adopted on viva voce vote.

The report was unanimously adopted on viva voce vote.

The report was unanimously adopted on viva voce vote.

The report was unanimously adopted on viva voce vote.

The report was unanimously adopted on viva voce vote.

The report was unanimously adopted on viva voce vote.